Schwerin, Burns, Campbell and French, attorneys, by John Burns, appearing for and on behalf of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific.

Kenneth Eikenberry, Attorney General, by Robert McIntosh, Assistant Attorney General, for and on behalf of Washington State Ferries.

THIS MATTER came before the Marine Employees' Commission for consideration of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific's Motion to Dismiss MEC Case No. 2-92.

On January 24, 1992, the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific (IBU) filed an unfair labor practice complaint charging the Washington State Ferries (WSF) with failure to pay certain employees according to previous grievance settlements.

IBU's complaint, MEC Case No. 2-92 was consolidated with MEC Case No. 1-92 for the purpose of a prehearing conference to determine whether or not the cases were unfair labor practices or grievances. Commissioner Donald E. Kokjer was appointed Hearing Examiner. Following a prehearing conference held on March 26, 1992, the Marine Employees' Commission determined that the facts of MEC Case

No. 2-92, if true and provable, may constitute an unfair labor practice (WAC 316-45-110). A hearing was scheduled for May 29, 1992.

During MEC's monthly meeting on May 22, 1992, IBU informed MEC that the parties have resolved the dispute. By letter dated May 28, 1992, IBU withdrew the unfair labor practice complaint filed against WSF.

Pursuant to the withdrawal of the unfair labor practice complaint by the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific (WAC 316-45-090), it is hereby ordered that MEC Case No. 2-92 is dismissed.

DONE this 12th day of June, 1992
