

MARILYN GLENN SAYAN, CHAIRPERSON
PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

J.D., University of Puget Sound, 1983
B.A., The Evergreen State College, 1979

Marilyn Glenn Sayan is serving her third term as Chairperson, having originally been appointed to the Commission in February 1996.

Ms. Sayan spent over thirty years in personnel/labor management in Washington State government. She retired in 1993 as Director of the State Department of Personnel, having previously served as Deputy Director and Labor Relations Manager for the Department and as the Appeals Program Manager for the State Higher Education Personnel Board. She served on the Executive Board of the Association of Labor Relations Agencies from 1998 to 2006 and as ALRA President from 2006-2007.

In addition to serving on the Commission, Ms. Sayan is also a mediator and is an active community volunteer.

PAMELA G. BRADBURN, COMMISSIONER

B.A. in Comparative Literature, University of Washington 1967
J.D., University of Washington 1973
M.A. in Transformative Spirituality, Seattle University 2006

Pamela G. Bradburn is delighted to serve as a Commissioner with Chairperson Marilyn Glenn Sayan and Commissioner Thomas McLane. After practicing before PERC from 1976 through 1993, and working for PERC from 1994 to late 2001, she is honored to have the opportunity to participate in deciding appeals, making precedent, and adopting rules to assure that collective bargaining continues to work as well as possible for public employers, employees, and unions in the State of Washington.

In addition to serving as a Commissioner, Pamela is also a mediator, spiritual mentor, and world traveler.

THOMAS W. McLANE, COMMISSIONER
PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS COMMISSION

Thomas W. McLane is a principal of the firm Randall | Danskin, and has twenty-five years of experience in the labor and employment field. He is an honors graduate of Gonzaga University School of Law, and has an LL.M. in Labor Law from George Washington University. Mr. McLane was a law clerk for Federal District Court Judge Justin Quackenbush.

His practice includes extensive client counseling on matters such as traditional labor law and employment discrimination. Mr. McLane regularly serves as both a mediator and arbitrator.

He is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell; is listed in The Best Lawyers in America for Labor and Employment Law; and is listed as a “Super Lawyer” by Washington Law and Politics. In addition, Mr. McLane has been reappointed by Governor Gregoire to a five year term as a Commissioner of the Washington Public Employment Relations Commission. He has served on the Commission since 2008.
