THIS MATTER came before the Marine Employees' Commission (MEC) for consideration of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific's Motion to Dismiss MEC Case No. 10-92.

On November 3, 1992, the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific filed an unfair labor practice complaint against the Washington State Ferries. IBU alleged that WSF had engaged in unfair labor practices within the meaning of RCW 47.64.130(1)(a) and (e) and WAC 316-45-003(1)(a) and (e) by refusing to remit payment for settled grievances in a timely manner.

After initial processing of the complaint, the Marine Employees' Commission determined that the alleged facts, if true and provable, may constitute an unfair labor practice. At the request of Dennis Conklin, IBU, and Dave Rice, WSF, the Commission consolidated MEC Case 10-92 with MEC Case 5-92 to be heard by Commissioner Donald E. Kokjer.

On the scheduled hearing date of December 22, 1992 the parties reached a tentative settlement, but asked Hearing Examiner Kokjer to continue the cases until IBU notified MEC that all grievance payments have been made. During MEC's March 19, 1993 meeting, Dennis Conklin informed the Commission that the issues in Case 10-92 have been completely resolved, and he requested dismissal of the complaint.

Pursuant to the withdrawal of the unfair labor practice complaint by the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific (WAC 316-45-090), it is hereby ordered that MEC Case No. 10-92 is dismissed.

DONE this 7th day of April, 1993.
