If an agreement is reached on an alternative, implementation can occur as soon as legally possible.

ARTICLE 18 POLICE OFFICERS' BILL OF RIGHTS

The wide ranging powers and duties given to the Police Department and its members involve them in all manner of contacts and relationships with the public. Of these contacts come many questions concerning the actions of members of the force. These questions often require immediate investigation by superior officers designated by the Chief of the Bremerton Police Department. In an effort to insure that these investigations are conducted in a manner which is conducive to good order and discipline, the following guidelines are promulgated:

- 18.1 Internal Investigation Defined - For the purposes of this Appendix, the term "internal investigation" means an investigation by or under the authority of the Chief of Police of activities, circumstances or events pertaining to the conduct or acts of a City law enforcement employee. Such investigation shall be deemed a "criminal investigation" where it is suspected that such conduct or acts are or may be the basis for filing a criminal charge against such employee, and shall be deemed a "major investigation" where it is suspected that such conduct or acts may also or alternatively be the basis for discharge, suspension or other discipline of such employee.
- 18.2 Employee Advised of Alleged Misconduct - Every employee who becomes the subject of an internal investigation shall be advised at the time of any interview in connection therewith that, as the case may be, (s)he is suspected of:

At the time of the interview such employee shall also be informed of the name of the officer in charge of the investigation and the name of the officer who will be conducting the interview.

18.3 Representation by Counsel - Any employee who becomes the subject of a criminal investigation may have legal counsel present during all interviews of such employee. Such representation by counsel shall be confined to counseling and shall not be authority for any participation by counsel in the investigation.

18.4 Employee to be Informed in Writing-Recorded Interviews - In the case of any major investigation and before any interview commences, the employee to be interviewed shall be informed in writing of the nature of the investigation including information necessary to reasonably appraise him/her of the allegations of any complaint and (s)he shall be afforded an opportunity and facilities to contact and consult privately with an attorney of his/her own choosing before being interviewed.

Such employee may request that the interview be recorded, either mechanically or by a stenographer, and no questions shall be asked "off the record". Interviewing shall be completed within a reasonable time and shall be accomplished under circumstances devoid of intimation or coercion. The employee being interviewed shall be entitled to such intermissions as (s)he shall request for personal necessities, meals, telephone calls, and rest periods. All interviewing shall be limited to the conduct or acts of the employee under investigation which form or may form the basis for disciplinary action, termination of employment or the filing of a criminal charge.
