Schwerin, Burns, Campbell and French, attorneys, by John Burns, appearing for and on behalf of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific.

Kenneth Eikenberry, Attorney General, by Robert McIntosh, Assistant Attorney General, representing Washington State Ferries.

THIS MATTER came before the Marine Employees' Commission for consideration of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific's Motion to Dismiss MEC Case No. 12-91

On November 25, 1991, the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific (IBU) filed an unfair labor practice complaint against the Washington State Ferries (WSF)

After initial processing of IBU's complaint pursuant to WAC 316-45-110, a majority of the Commission determined that the facts, if true and provable, may constitute an unfair labor practice. Commissioner Donald E. Kokjer was appointed Hearing Examiner. A hearing was scheduled for February 27, 1992.

On February 27, 1992, prior to convening the hearing, the parties reached a settlement of the matter. The terms of the settlement were read into the record. As a result of that settlement, by letter dated February 28, 1992, Attorney John Burns withdrew the unfair labor practice complaint filed by the IBU against WSF.

Pursuant to the withdrawal of the unfair labor practice complaint by the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific (WAC 316-45-090), it is hereby ordered that MEC Case No. 12-91 is dismissed.

DONE this 9th day of April, 1992.
