Schwerin, Burns, Campbell and French, attorneys, by John Burns, appearing for and on behalf of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific.

Kenneth Eikenberry, Attorney General, by Robert McIntosh, Assistant Attorney General, for and on behalf of Washington State Ferries.

THIS MATTER came before the Marine Employees' Commission (MEC) for consideration of the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific's Motion to Dismiss MEC Case No. 3-93.

On February 19, 1993, the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific (IBU) filed an unfair labor practice complaint charging the Washington State Ferries (WSF) with failure to comply with previous settlement agreements.

After initial processing of the complaint, the Marine Employees' Commission determined that the alleged facts, if true and provable, may constitute an unfair labor practice. By letter dated March 25, 1993, Dennis Conklin, requested that MEC Case No. 3-93 be consolidated with MEC Case 5-92, pursuant to WAC 316-02-560(3) because the facts and principles of law are related. Hearing Examiner Kokjer granted IBU's request for consolidation, and scheduled a hearing for May 10, 1993. At the IBU's request and with WSF's approval, the hearing was continued to June 8, 1993. Prior to convening the hearing, the parties reached agreement.

By letter dated June 10, 1993, IBU withdrew the unfair labor practice complaint, MEC Case No. 3-93, filed against WSF.

Pursuant to the withdrawal of the unfair labor practice complaint by the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific, and pursuant to WAC 316-45-090, it is hereby ordered that MEC Case No. 3-93 is dismissed.

DONE this 21st day of June 1993
