

STATE OF WASHINGTON
BEFORE THE MARINE EMPLOYEES' COMMISSION

DOUG SCHLIEF et al.,

Complainants,

v.

INLANDBOATMEN'S UNION OF
THE PACIFIC et al.,

Respondents.

MEC CONSOLIDATED CASES
32-03, 33-03, 35-03, 36-03, 38-03

DECISION NO. 381 – MEC
SUPPLEMENT

ORDER MAKING MEC
DECISION AND ORDER FINAL

APPEARANCES

Doug Schlief, appearing for Doug Schlief et al.

Larry Dunlap, appearing for Larry Dunlap et al.

Christine Gregoire, Attorney General, by David Slown, Assistant Attorney General, appearing for the Washington State Ferries.

Schwerin, Campbell and Barnard, by Dmitri Iglitzin, Attorney, appearing for the Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific.

Phil Olwell, appearing for Phil Olwell et al.

ON OCTOBER 7, 2003, HEARING EXAMINER JOHN BYRNE issued Decision and Order, Decision No. 381-MEC, deciding MEC Consolidated Cases 32-03, 33-03, 35-03, 36-03 and 38-03.

ORDER

The Marine Employees' Commission received no petition for review of Examiner's findings of fact, conclusions of law and order within the 20-day time limit specified in WAC 316-45-350. Having reviewed the matter, the Commissioners now adopt the Examiner's Decision and Order. The Examiner's findings of fact, conclusions of law and order become those of the Commission's.

The Commission now orders Decision No. 381-MEC to be final and binding in accordance with RCW 47.64.280. This order will start the period running for any appeal to the Washington State Superior Court, pursuant to RCW 34.05.542 and 34.05.514.

DATED this _____ day of October 2003.

MARINE EMPLOYEES' COMMISSION

JOHN NELSON

JOHN SULLIVAN

JOHN BYRNE