COMPLETING THE FORM

- Provide contact information for parties and signing petitioner.
- Indicate the type of request.
- Describe the bargaining unit, including the division or department and number of employees.
- ONLY include the showing of interest cards with the petition to PERC. Do not provide copies of the cards to other parties.

TIMING FOR FILING

If you wish to organize a new bargaining unit or your contract has expired:

- A petition to organize and represent currently unrepresented employees can be filed at any time.
- If the contract has expired, a petition can be filed at any time, prior to the signing of a new contract.

If you wish to change representation or decertify:

Employees covered by a current contract must file a petition to decertify or change unions during a 30 day "window period." The 30 day window period is determined by the expiration date of the current contract.

- For employees under RCW 41.80, the window period begins 120 days and ends 90 days before the contract expires.
- For employees under all other statutes, the window period begins 90 days and ends 60 days before the contract expires.
- If PERC has issued a certification, no petition involving the same employees may be filed for 12 months from the date of the certification.

CASE REPRESENTATIVES

For the petitioner:

- The individual signing on behalf of the petitioner is considered the representative of that party.
- If the filing party intends to have another representative, that person must file a notice of appearance.

For other parties:

- Until a notice of appearance is received by PERC, only the non-filing party's chief executive officer as listed on PERC's notice of case filing document will be served with papers from PERC.
