Who Can File a Petition?

The petitioner is the party who files the petition and may be an individual employee, a union, or (in rare circumstances) an employer.

For more detailed information please refer to our website at perc.wa.gov/elections. For applicable rules, visit perc.wa.gov/laws-rules and refer to chapters 10-08, 391-08, and 391-25 WAC.

Party Representatives

PERC only sends documents to default contacts currently on file. If a party intends to have another representative as the primary contact that person must file a notice of appearance.

Filing Time Frame

A petition may be filed at any time if you (1) intend to organize a new bargaining unit or (2) your contract has expired and a new contract has not yet been signed.

A petition to change representation or decertify can only be filed during a 30-day window period.

The 30-day window period is determined by the expiration date of the current contract.

- For employees covered by chapter 41.80 RCW, the window period begins 120 days and ends 90 days before the contract expires.
- For employees covered by all other statutes, the window period begins 90 days and ends 60 days before the contract expires.
- If PERC has issued a certification, no petition involving the same employees may be filed for 12 months from the date of the certification.

Bargaining Unit

- For petitions to organize a new unit, describe the proposed bargaining unit.
- For petitions seeking to include unrepresented employees in an existing bargaining unit, describe the existing bargaining unit and the positions the petition is seeking to include in that unit.

Showing of Interest

A showing of interest is individual papers/cards from at least 30 percent of the employees in the bargaining unit. Each card must be signed, dated, and clearly state the desired outcome. Example language for the card is as follows:

I want to be represented by [name of union] for the purpose of collective bargaining. (or)
I no longer want to be represented by [name of union] for the purpose of collective bargaining.

A sheet of paper with multiple signatures will not be accepted. The showing of interest cards should be filed ONLY with PERC. Do not provide copies of the cards to other parties.
